

A GUEST LECTURE ON

“POLYTRAUMA”

Dr.A.Sudhakar Reddy, Neurosurgeon, SVRRGGH, Tirupathi delivered a guest lecture on management of poly trauma patients to B.sc (N) students on 24/2/2016

Dr.A.Sudhakar reddy initiated the session by golden principles of emergency care to be followed by nurses at the site of accidents in maintaining BAC (Breathing, Airway and circulation) and stopping the haemorrhage and examining for cervical, spinalcord injury and shock and to prevent further complications.Like fractures by carefully transporting, the client and also explained care at causalty for Head injury, fracture skull, and signs of diagnosing internal haemorrhage. He gave valuable suggestions to avoid accidents, and not to make second accident

The session was highly interactive with students by posing various queries on emergency care.

A Students and faculty were getting suggestions on essential skills to be developed by the nurses at the time of disaster management and first aid care during accidents.

