

WORLD TUBERCULOSIS DAY REPORT

Sree Vidyanikethan College of Nursing in association with the NSS unit and primary health Center, Bakarapet conducted a rally and poster presentation on world tuberculosis day i.e 24.03.2022. Medical officers, health care teams, and students are actively participated and created awareness among the public regarding preventive measures for tuberculosis from 9.30 am to 12.30 pm.

Students organized World Tuberculosis Day With NSS unit and primary health center

Students are conducting the rally on the eve of world tuberculosis day at the primary health center, Bakarapet

Students are distributing the pamphlets on the eve of world tuberculosis day

Students are giving health education on the eve of world tuberculosis day

Participation of students and medical officers in creating awareness about tuberculosis on the eve of world tuberculosis day

IV year students in phc on the eve of world Tuberculosis Day