

SREE VIDYANIKETHAN COLLEGE OF NURSING

Faculty Development Programme

Faculty development programme has organized on 22nd June, 2024 with the theme "Objective Structured Clinical Examination" at Sree Vidyanikethan college of Nursing, Tirupati by Mrs.D.Divya, Assistant professor, Sree Vidyanikethan College of Nursing.

Mrs.Divya initiated the programme with brief introduction about conduction of OSCE in clinical evaluation methods .she explained purposes,uses ,advantages of OSCE and also the steps in designing and implementing an OSCE.She elaborates the various domines used to evaluate clinical competencies and skills such as communication,clinical examination ,medical and nursing procedures and manipulation techniques and interpretation of results .at last she explained about the manned and unmanned stations and evaluation checklist for various domines.

Mrs.D.Divya introducing the topic

Diagrammatic representation of the domains and competencies

Faculty performing the group task in practice session

Faculty explained the practiced group assignment in front of the faculty

At the end of the session group discussion and practical session was conducted on construction of scenarios based on the dominex.

All the faculties were expressed that they were benefited with the topic selected and presented.