

SREE VIDYANIKETHAN COLLEGE OF NURSING

Report on International Midwives Day-2025

Sree Vidyanikethan College of Nursing 5th semester students along with the NSS team perform the role to play on the occasion of International Midwives Day at Kandulavaripalli village on 5-5-2025 to create awareness among the villagers regarding the role of midwives in the care of women during antenatal, Intra natal, and also postnatal period.

SREE VIDYANIKETHAN
College of Nursing

Role Play

INTERNATIONAL
MIDWIFES
DAY - 2025
(CRITICAL IN EVERY CRISIS)

 05th May 2025
10:00 AM - 11:00 AM

Organized by

NSS UNIT ,
SREE VIDYANIKETHAN COLLEGE OF NURSING

KANDULAVARIPALLI

During the role-play Ms. Neelima who acted as a midwife explained about care to be taken for antenatal mothers during the antenatal period which includes exercises, diet, vaccinations, and screening for high-risk mothers during the antenatal period to save the life of the antenatal and baby. Also explained. Also insisted everyone undergo institutional delivery during the labour period. Villagers also clarified their doubts.

Ms Neelima explained the care of the antenatal mother

Role play performed by students

Group photo along with the villagers at kandulavaripalli village