

A GUEST LECTURE ON THYROID DISORDERS

24th August, 2019

A guest lecture on Thyroid Disorders was organized at Dasari Auditorium on 24th August, 2019.

Dr. Haripriya, MBBS, MD Consultant Physician, Purna's Remedy Hospital, Tirupati was the resource person. The lecture was delivered to IV year B.Sc (N) & P.B.B.Sc (N) and Pharmacy students and faculty members of Nursing and Pharmacy.

Dr. Haripriya, MBBS, MD- Consultant Physician, Purna's Remedy Hospital, Tirupati delivering the lecture

During the lecture, Dr. Haripriya enlightened on various thyroid diseases which includes Goiter, Grave's disease, Hyperactive and Hypoactive of thyroid gland. Dr. Haripriya mentioned that about 42 million people in India suffer from five common thyroid diseases. She laid focus on early diagnosis, and prompt treatment. She emphasized on the holistic role of a nurse, dietary management and covered the exciting work that is in progress to ascertain the normal reference range of thyroid hormones in India, especially during pregnancy and also in children.

Dr. HariPriya enlightening the students and faculty on Thyroid Disorders

Dr. HariPriya interacting & clarifying the queries

Dr. Haripriya and Faculty Members

The faculty members interacted with the guest speaker on the research perspectives in the field of endocrinology.

About 250 students and faculty members got enriched from the lecture delivered by Dr. Haripriya for exploring the contents within and beyond the curriculum in Thyroid Disorders.